Becoming an H2A Worker

Agent Interview

Agent conducts prescreening interview with worker and sends credentials if he has skills and experience 2 Resume

Worker uses credentials to sign into USAFL Database. Worker completes resume and provides 2 references

4 Employer Review

Employer reviews resume and selects workers they are interested in interviewing 3 Agent Links Resume

Agent sends worker resume to compatible employers to review

5 Worker Receives Email

Worker receives an email with the contact information for the interested Employer 6 Employer Interview

Worker calls potential Employer for a telephone interview

Job Offer

Worker receives job offer by email. Worker reviews the work contract. Hiring Decision

Employer makes hiring decision and lets the Agent and USAFL know who he's chosen

Worker Accepts Offer

Worker accepts or rejects job offer on USAFL Database.
Click on "Employers" tab, then "Interested Employers."
Review and agree to: a Checklist, a Summary Terms of Employment, and Agreement between worker and USAFL, and a Code of Conduct.

Acceptance reserves worker on the Employer's crew. 4 Agent Confirms Agent confirms worker on the database. USAFL sees confirmation and places the worker with the Employer